ART IN PUBLIC PLACES PROGRAM

New Mexico State University has selected, purchased and placed public art on campus, funded by the Art in Public Places (AIPP) program of the New Mexico Arts Division (NMAD). The AIPP Act directs one percent of the total state appropriation of new construction or renovation of any building to be expended for the acquisition of art. The intent of this brochure is to provide a map of artwork installed through the AIPP direct purchase initiatives and commissioned projects, for a self-guided tour around the university grounds. Take the walking tour and explore amazing artwork.
